

Visual Abnormalities

- Myopia (nearsightedness) - the eyeball is too long for the focusing power of the lens and cornea. Light rays from distance objects are focused in front of the retina therefore images at distance are blurred.

