

Visual Abnormalities

- Hyperopia (farsightedness) - the eyeball is too short for the focusing power of the lens and cornea. Light rays from near objects are focused behind the retina therefore blurring images at near.

